

UNITED FOR

WORKING FAMILIES

Thirty percent of Shasta County families are struggling to make ends meet. Often they must work three or four jobs to reach self sufficiency. United Way is dedicated to helping our community through Prosperity Initiative financial stability programs and by granting funds to organizations that provide basic needs and after-school care for children. When families have access to resources they can provide a quality life for themselves and their children.

What are you UNITED FOR?
norcalunitedway.org/united-for

United Way of Northern California